Family Place Workshops

Wednesdays, 6 pm

Family Place Libraries™ is a network of children's librarians nationwide who believe that literacy begins at birth, and that libraries can help build healthy communities by nourishing healthy families. Parents and caregivers with children ages 0-3 are welcome to sign up for this five-week series beginning May 5, 2010. Participation will be limited to 12 families. Different childhood experts will be on hand to talk to parents and play with children. Each week, new learning and exploration activities will be offered.

Preschool Story Time

Thursdays, 10:30 am

This half hour program is for children ages 3-6 and their caregivers, although any one is invited to attend. Enjoy books and activities together and hear special tips to help your young one learn the steps to basic literacy.

Adult Programs

Catch the Buzz at Perl Mack

Monday, May 10, 10-11:30 am

Spend time with friends and neighbors on Saturday mornings at the library to catch the buzz from around town or just enjoy fresh-brewed coffee or tea and delicious breakfast pastries with the morning paper.

Perl Mack Genealogy Group

Tuesday, May 18, 9:30 am

This month's topic is "Discover Your Neighborhood." Uncover family history and begin your genealogy search at your local library. The Perl Mack Genealogy Group meets the third Tuesday of the month at 9:30 am.

All programs are free and open to the public. For more information, please contact Anythink Perl Mack at 303-428-3576; go to anythinklibraries.org or visit us at 7611 Hilltop Circle, Denver, CO 80221.

About Anythink™

Anythink is a new style of library – a place of unlimited imagination, where play inspires creativity and lifelong learning. Rangeview Library District serves the residents of Adams County with six Anythink libraries and Anythink in Motion – the district's mobile library. Construction and renovations are underway on one new library and three existing libraries, all scheduled to open in 2010. For more information, go to anythinklibraries.org.
