Anythink Perl Mack Community Meeting

What: Architect Dennis Humphries of Humphries Poli Architects reviews the design development for Anythink Perl Mack's proposed renovations, scheduled to begin next month. Features of the renovation include a new neighborhood entrance from El Paso Boulevard; a children's area, teen space and computer lab; an expanded program space; and a porch along the south side of the building. Sustainable features will include day lighting, geothermal heating and cooling, and a community garden planned for the west side of the property.

The community meeting is free and open to the public.

When: Thursday, May 20, 2010, 6-8 pm

Where: Anythink Perl Mack
7611 Hilltop Circle
Denver, CO 80221

About Anythink™

Anythink is a new style of library – a place of unlimited imagination, where play inspires creativity and lifelong learning. Rangeview Library District serves the residents of Adams County with six Anythink libraries and Anythink in Motion – the district's mobile library. Construction and renovations are underway on one new library and three existing libraries, all scheduled to open in 2010-2011. For more information, go to anythinklibraries.org.
