Anythink Libraries Call for Volunteers for Wright Farms Grand Opening

Opportunities Available for Community to Assist with the Day's Festivities

THORNTON, Colo.–June 28, 2010–Rangeview Library District's Anythink Wright Farms library in Thornton opens to the public Saturday, July 10. The day will be filled with fun and excitement for the whole family, and Adams County residents are invited to participate by assisting with the day's events. Volunteer positions include passing out bags, helping with crafts, providing tours and sharing information about the library.

Anyone interested in volunteering for the day can contact Wright Farms volunteer coordinator Katie Meis at kmeis@anythinklibraries.org.

About Anythink™

Anythink is a new style of library – a place of unlimited imagination, where play inspires creativity and lifelong learning. Rangeview Library District serves the residents of Adams County with six Anythink libraries and Anythink in Motion – the district's mobile library. Construction and renovations are underway on three existing libraries, all scheduled to open in 2010-2011. For more information, go to anythinklibraries.org.
