Anythink Thornton Closes for Renovations on July 31

North Washington Location Reopens Late Fall 2010

THORNTON, Colo.—July 19, 2010—Anythink Thornton, located at 8995 Washington Street in Thornton, Colo., will close temporarily for renovations on Saturday, July 31, 2010, at 5:30 pm. The library is tentatively scheduled to reopen in late fall 2010.

What customers will find this fall is a revitalized community library. The design concept is to create a comfortable, contemporary loft-inspired look. Renovations will include refurbished interior spaces; improved computer area; enlarged children's area; quiet reading nooks; new furniture, paint and carpet; and a first-floor community room for customers to utilize.

While Anythink Thornton is closed, customers are urged to visit Anythink Huron Street at 9417 Huron Street or Anythink Wright Farms at 5877 E. 120th Street – both also in Thornton – for programs and library services. Materials may be returned to any other Anythink location. Holds will be transferred to Anythink Huron Street, unless another location is requested.

About Anythink™

Anythink is a new style of library – a place of unlimited imagination, where play inspires creativity and lifelong learning. Rangeview Library District serves the residents of Adams County with six Anythink libraries and Anythink in Motion – the district's mobile library. Construction and renovations are underway on three existing libraries, all scheduled to open in 2010-2011. For more information, go to anythinklibraries.org.
