Anythink Trail Clean-ups Scheduled for July 31

Celebrate the End of mySummer by Giving Back

THORNTON, Colo.—July 21, 2010—After a summer of exploring destinations in the imagination with mySummer, Rangeview Library District's Anythink libraries has organized two trail clean-ups to be held in Brighton and Thornton as a way for library staff and customers to give back to their local communities. From 9-11 am on Saturday, July 31, clean-ups are scheduled at Veterans Park in Brighton and Niver Creek Trail in Thornton.

Veterans Park Clean-Up

Participants will meet in the Veterans Park parking lot at 405 W. Bridge Street at 9 am to help with litter collection and trail maintenance. Bags and gloves will be provided.

Niver Creek Trail Clean-Up

Participants will meet at Anythink Huron Street, located at 9417 Huron Street, at 9 am to help with litter collection. Bags and gloves will be provided. Keep Thornton Beautiful is also participating by providing gloves and safety vests for volunteers.

Welcome Home Parties

After spending some time giving back to the local community, participants are invited to head back to their local Anythink for a Welcome Home Party, welcoming customers back from their mySummer imagination vacations.

Anythink Bennett, 1 pm

495 7th Street, Bennett, CO 80102

Celebrate the end of mySummer with a barbecue and show off your finished scrapbooks!
All ages welcome.
