Gifts from the Heart Returns to Anythink Libraries

Gift-Giving Program Mixes Creativity and Community

THORNTON, Colo.—November 18, 2011—Anythink’s district-wide Gifts from the Heart program returns this December, providing opportunities for friends and neighbors to gather at their local Anythink to create amazing gifts for the special people in their lives. This annual gift-giving program offers all ages more ways to have fun and be creative at their library, as community members craft unique gifts such as T-shirt carryalls, leather-braided bracelets, picture frames, decorations and more.

Gifts from the Heart Activities

Anythink Wright Farms

Saturday, Dec. 3, 11 am-1 pm

Transform ordinary objects into gifts that you’ll be pleased to give. Materials will be provided for several crafts. To make the T-shirt carryall, please bring one T-shirt for each bag you want to make. This drop-in program is for all ages and features easy-to-make and easier-to-love projects that don’t require artistic talent to enjoy.

Anythink Bennett

Saturday, Dec. 3, 2-4 pm & Monday, Dec. 5-Wednesday, Dec. 7, 3-6 pm

Kick off the holidays at any of these four gift-making sessions to handcraft gifts suitable for everyone in the family – bath sno-balls, piggy banks, gold mini-pinecone necklaces, fleece winter hats, snowmen pins, leather-braided bracelets, photo cubes and 2012 calendars. Then wrap your gifts so they’re ready for giving.

Anythink Washington Street

Fridays, Dec. 9 & 16, 3-5 pm

Join us in transforming ordinary objects into gifts you’ll be pleased to give. Materials will be provided for several crafts. This drop-in program is for all ages and features easy-to-make and easier-to-love projects that don’t require artistic talent to enjoy.
