August Programs at Anythink Wright Farms

THORNTON, Colo.– July 28, 2011—As the summer winds down in August, book clubs and tech classes are the focus at Anythink Wright Farms. But be sure not to miss Chef Ian Kleinman’s “Inventing Room.” Chef Ian combines his passions of science and cooking in what the Denver Post calls a marriage of “techniques and ingredients from industrial food production with a childlike mad inventor's whimsy.” It’ll be a real treat.
