

IMMEDIATE RELEASE
August 11, 2008

Contact:
Steve Hansen, 303-405-3287
Communications Director

Dial-A-Story Available at Rangeview Library District

Share Stories with Your Young Ones over the Phone

NORTHGLENN, Colo.—August 11, 2009—Rangeview Library District offers a great way for your child to enjoy story times from anywhere a touch-tone phone is available. By dialing 303-451-7000, listeners can hear time-honored classics like Billy Goat's Gruff and The Fox and the Rooster over the phone. This service is free and available 24/7. Each week the stories change, so your child can enjoy the service again and again.

Upcoming stories include:

August 18 - George Washington and the Colt

August 25 - George Washington and the Cherry Tree

September 1 - The Fox and the Rooster

September 8 - Five Peas in the Pod

September 15 - Fire Bringer

September 22 - The Elves and the Shoemaker

September 29 - The Donkey in the Lion's Skin

October 6 - The Coyote and the Woodpecker

October 13 - The Coyote and the Fox

October 20 - The Coyote and the Blackbirds

October 27 - The Coyote and the Bear

November 3 - The Country Cat

November 10 - The Caterpillar's Surprise

November 17 - The Cat and the Parrot

November 24 - Old Man Rabbit's Thanksgiving Dinner

December 1 - The Buckwheat

December 8 - Billy Goat's Gruff

December 15 - The Ants and the Grasshopper

December 22 - The Visit to Santa Claus Land

December 29 - Snowball's Christmas Eve

January 5, 2010 - Wylie

For more information about story times available in the libraries, or any other available programming, visit anythinklibraries.org.