September Programs at Commerce City Library

COMMERCE CITY, Colo.–August 28, 2009–Explore something new at the Commerce City Library in September. With great classes for adults and fun crafts for kids, the library has something for everyone.

Special Programs

Celebrate Diversity
Saturday, Sept. 12, 11 am-3pm
Help us to celebrate the launch of our new brand and learn about different cultures while creating memories with friends and family. Design your own sugar skull from Mexico with edible paint; create your own Good Luck Hand, a craft from Northern Africa, where the eye in the center protects against evil; or design your own masquerade mask.
