October Programs at Anythink Brighton

BRIGHTON, Colo.—September 24, 2009—Visit the beautiful new Anythink Brighton for fantastic programming throughout the month of October. Have you gotten your new library card yet? If not, visit the library to choose from several fabulous new designs.

Special Programs

Book Talk with Author Mary Peace Finley
Thursday, October 8, 3:30 pm
Award-winning young adult author Mary Peace Finley will discuss her books and stories about Colorado during the 1800s. A native of the state, Finley’s Santa Fe trilogy has won the Top Hand Award from the Colorado Author’s League, the Colorado Book Award, and the Benjamin Franklin Award in the Juvenile/Young Adult Fiction category.

Story Time for Grown-Ups: Because kids shouldn’t have all the fun!
Mondays, 12:15 pm
Enjoy listening to short stories and book teasers while you eat your lunch. Bring your brownbag meal and your listening ears.

Project Night at Anythink
Thursdays, 7 pm
Thought of that great project you want to do, but just haven’t begun? Already have one started but need a little motivation to keep going? Bring your unfinished novel, your half-done afghan, or that stack of photos that you keep meaning to scrapbook to the Anythink Brighton and spend an hour getting closer to your goal.
