Rockin’ Read-toberfest Begins at Anythink

Program Highlights the Importance of Family Reading

DENVER—October 8, 2009—Read-toberfest has begun at Anythink libraries, and families are invited to participate by reading aloud together throughout the month of October. Visit your local Anythink to sign up. Participants are encouraged to read stories aloud with their family for 30 minutes every day in October. Record the books or chapters you read in the Read-toberfest log. Once completed, bring your reading log to your local Anythink to be eligible for fantastic family reading prizes.

In celebration of Read-toberfest, Anythink libraries are offering fun family programming in October.
