January Programs at Anythink Perl Mack

DENVER—Dec. 30, 2009—Spending time with family and neighbors is a great way to start the New Year. We have lots of ways for you to get creative, learn something new or meet new people this month at your local Anythink.

Special Programs

Saturday, Jan. 16, 3 pm

As part of this month's "Puppet Pandemonium," we'll be making Glove Puppets this afternoon. All materials are provided by the library, although participants are allowed to bring their own gloves if they would like. This project is intended for people of all ages, so bring the whole family! We will be using hot glue guns, and there may be some very basic needlework. Adults are encouraged to stay and participate in the program with very young children.

Catch the Buzz at Perl Mack

Saturday, Jan. 23, 9:30-11 am

Spend time with friends and neighbors on Saturday mornings at the library to catch the buzz from around town or just enjoy fresh-brewed coffee or tea and delicious breakfast pastries with the morning paper.
