Anythink Commerce City Community Meeting

What: Architect Dennis Humphries of Humphries Poli Architects reviews the design development for Anythink Commerce City's proposed renovations, scheduled to begin in early 2010. Features of the renovation include a new entry plaza facing the corner of 72nd and Monaco; a children's pavilion, computer lab and teen area; and a reading nook with fireplace looking out onto a small enclosed garden. Sustainable features include geothermal heating and cooling, SolaTubes for natural light and a green roof.

The community meeting is free and open to the public.

When: Thursday, December 3, 2009, at 6 pm

Where: Anythink Commerce City

About Anythink™

Anythink is a new style of library – a place of unlimited imagination, where play inspires creativity and lifelong learning. Rangeview Library District serves the residents of Adams County with six Anythink libraries and Anythink in Motion – the district's mobile library. Construction is underway on two new libraries scheduled to open in 2010. For more information, go to anythinklibraries.org.
