To Convert or Not to Convert? That is the Question
Wednesday Sept. 22, 6:30 pm
ROTH conversions are a hot topic due to new regulations that have taken effect this year. Learn about the new regulations and the pros and cons of converting. Does it make sense for you to convert? Presented by Kim Schell from Waddell & Reed, Inc., member SPIC.

Children’s Programs

Anythink Afternoons for Kids
Wednesdays, 3:30-4:30 pm
Each week we will tie into our fall theme of “food” with these afternoon programs for school-aged kids. Food substitutions for allergies cannot be made at this time.

Sept. 2  Incredible Edible Crafts – Sushi made with fruit rolls? Ice cream sundaes made without any ice cream? Will you be able to make it out the door before eating your delicious creations? We will run this program twice this month. Please choose one session to allow the most number of kids to enjoy it. Appropriate for 1st-3rd graders.

Sept. 16 Food Prints – You say “potato,” I say “awesome biodegradable stamp perfect for creating custom wrapping paper.” Join us to mix food, paper, and paint for some very creative results. Appropriate for 1st-3rd graders.

Sept. 23 Cookie Extravaganza – We don’t have ovens, but that doesn’t stop us from teaching you how to make no-bake cookies. Try your hand at decorating, mixing, and taking home treats to tempt your whole family. Appropriate for 4th-6th graders.
