Family Programs

Family Fun

Tuesdays, 6-6:45 pm

Each week features a different activity for families with children and teens of all ages. Join us in the program space downstairs for culinary, creative and technological fun. All ages welcome. No registration required.

- March 6: Bingo – Join us and play this simple and incredibly fun game to win books from our varied collection for all ages.
- March 13: St. Patrick’s Day Craft – You may find a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow after you complete this lucky craft.
- March 20: Food Gadgets – There are so many gadgets out there that help us to make both healthy and tasty snacks. Let’s get together to use a few different appliances and enjoy our creations together.
- March 27: Uncovering the Titanic: An Artifact Exploration – During a visit from the Molly Brown House educators, participants will be transformed into junior curators by handling reproduction artifacts of the Titanic. This program will be held in honor of the 100th anniversary of the sinking of the Titanic.

Teen Programs

Teen Time

Wednesdays, 3-4 pm

Who knew you could have this much fun at the library? We’ve got great programs for teens here at Anythink Washington Street. Appropriate for teens in grades 6-12. No registration required.

- March 7: TAB – Get involved and let your voice and opinion be heard through the Teen Advisory Board (TAB).
- March 14: Pop Top Bracelets – We’ve been saving the pop tops from our favorite sodas so that we can create our own stylish jewelry out of them.
- March 21: Food Gadgets – There are so many gadgets out there that help us to make both healthy and tasty snacks. Let’s get together to use a few different appliances and enjoy our creations together.
- March 28: Ping Pong – Let’s get together for a little teamwork and friendly competition to play this popular international sport.
