August Programs at Anythink Washington Street

THORNTON, Colo.—July 28, 2011—From Bingo to board games to book clubs, the fun continues at the newly renovated Anythink Washington Street before school starts up again. But be sure not to miss Chef Ian Kleinman’s “Inventing Room.” Chef Ian combines his passions of science and cooking in what the Denver Post calls a marriage of “techniques and ingredients from industrial food production with a childlike mad inventor’s whimsy.” It’ll be a real treat.

Special Programs

Family Fun

Tuesdays, 6-6:45 pm

Each week features another activity for library customers of all ages. Drop by the programming space downstairs for creative, culinary and technological fun.

- August 2: Family Wii – We’ll break out the Wii and have some fun playing our new games.
- August 9: Bingo for Books – Bingo! Join us to play this simple and incredibly fun game to win books and other treats.
- August 16: Board Games – Take this time to relax or get competitive with one of our many board games. There is a game for all ages and skill levels.
- August 23: Bingo for Books – Bingo! Join us to play this simple and incredibly fun game to win books and other treats.
- August 30: Inventing Room – Learn how science and food can work together to make some of your favorite things. Then try one of the tasty creations by Chef Ian Kleinman.
