

anythink™

A REVOLUTION OF RANGEVIEW LIBRARIES

IMMEDIATE RELEASE
May 1, 2017

Contact:
Stacie Ledden, 303-405-3286
Director of Innovations & Brand Strategy
sledden@anythinklibraries.org

Joe Murray Joins Anythink as Creative Lead

New team member brings event and project management experience to organization

THORNTON, Colo.–May 1, 2017–Anythink has added a new member to its Innovations Department with the addition of Joe Murray as the district’s newest creative lead.

Hailing from Milwaukee, Wisc., Murray comes to Anythink with experience in small business marketing, event planning and project management. Most recently, Murray served as the communications manager for Copper Door Coffee Roasters in Denver. As a creative lead in Anythink’s department of Innovations and Brand Strategy, Murray will help to manage district-wide special projects and assist the team in forging new community partnerships.

“Creativity plays an important role in my life, so I’m very excited to work for such an innovative and dedicated organization. There’s a lot to be learned from this incredible team,” says Murray.

“We’re thrilled to have Joe Murray on the Anythink team,” says Stacie Ledden, director of innovations and brand strategy at Anythink. “He brings the perfect mix of project management experience, creativity and enthusiasm that will help us to bring new and exciting programs and initiatives to the Adams County community.”

About Anythink™

Anythink is a new style of library – a place of unlimited imagination, where play inspires creativity and lifelong learning. Rangeview Library District serves the residents of Adams County with seven Anythink libraries and Anythink in Motion – the district’s mobile library – and is one of the recipients of the 2010 National Medal of Museum and Library Service from the Institute of Museum and Library Services. For more information, go to anythinklibraries.org.

###