July Programs at Anythink Perl Mack

DENVER—June 30, 2011—From magic tricks to creative writing, we’ve got something for all ages and interests this month at Anythink Perl Mack.

mySummer

Summer Bug Safari
Friday, July 1, 11 am
Get up close and personal with live insects, spiders and other arthropods from around the world. Venture outdoors to see what types of insects live around the library. Presented by the Butterfly Pavilion. Appropriate for grades K-5. Space is limited; registration required. Please visit our online calendar to register.

I Didn’t Know I Could Do a Magic Trick
Tuesday, July 5, 3 pm
Explore your inner Houdini by learning magic tricks and performing for others. Impress family and friends with your sleight of hand and your knack for illusions. Appropriate for students grades K-6. Space is limited; registration required. Please visit our online calendar to register.

Movie Trivia Night
Wednesday, July 6, 6 pm
Do you know a lot about movies, but don’t know what to do with that information? Join us for a fun night of trivia that includes questions about movies past and present. Impress your neighbors with your knowledge and win great prizes. Appropriate for adults. Space is limited; registration required. Please visit our online calendar to register.

Shred the Air
Monday, July 11, 5 pm
Are you a master of the air guitar? Show off your skills and compete against others for cool prizes. Appropriate for students grades 6-12. Space is limited; registration required. Please visit our online calendar to register.
