Molina Speaks Gives Special Teen Performance at Anythink

Hip-hop Artist Engages with Youth with Thought-provoking Lyrics

THORNTON, Colo.—July 15, 2013–As part of Anythink’s interactive mySummer programming, hip-hop and spoken word artist Molina Speaks will engage teens during a special performance at Anythink York Street. Not only will teens get a chance to watch Molina Speaks perform, they will work with him to create their own verbal works of art. This special performance at Anythink York Street will be held in the Mapleton Public Schools auditorium next to the library at 3 pm on Wednesday, July 17.

With lyrics that are both provocative and empowering, Molina Speaks uses music to connect with his audience about such topics as activism, culture and immigration. His diverse background in law, writing, education and music provides inspiration for thought-provoking compositions that help connect youth with important community issues.

Event Details

Molina Speaks
July 17, 2013
3 pm

Anythink York Street
8990 York St.
Thornton, CO 80229
303-405-3234

Join spoken word artist and rapper Molina Speaks as he takes you through a lyrical journey. Then join him in making your own verbal works of art. Appropriate for students grades 6-12. This event will take place in the Mapleton Public Schools auditorium next to the library.
About Anythink™
Anythink is a new style of library – a place of unlimited imagination, where play inspires creativity and lifelong learning. Rangeview Library District serves the residents of Adams County with seven Anythink libraries and Anythink in Motion – the district’s mobile library – and is one of the recipients of the 2010 National Medal of Museum and Library Service from the Institute of Museum and Library Services. For more information, go to anythinklibraries.org.

###