Anythink Hosts Digital Bookmobile Event

Community members invited to explore Anythink's digital services

THORNTON, Colo.–May 21, 2014–To help showcase the wide variety of cutting-edge digital services available to library customers, Anythink will host a Digital Bookmobile event in the parking lot of Anythink Wright Farms on May 31 from 10 am to 2 pm. Operated by OverDrive, Inc., the Digital Bookmobile is a 74-foot community outreach vehicle featuring broadband Internet connected PCs, high-definition monitors, premium sound systems and a variety of portable media players, all of which help customers explore Anythink's digital offerings.

“Our customers love ebooks, so we're excited to have OverDrive's Digital Bookmobile visit Anythink,” says Anythink Collection Development Director Logan McDonald. “It will be a fun experience for everyone, whether you're an expert at downloading titles or just trying ebooks for the first time.”

The Digital Bookmobile highlights Anythink's comprehensive digital collection, which is available in a variety of formats. With services like OverDrive, Axis 360 and OneClickdigital, customers can borrow ebooks and audiobooks directly to their device with their Anythink card. Additionally, the latest issues of digital magazines – both local and national – can be browsed using Anythink's subscription to Zinio. Anythink's most recent service, hoopla digital, provides customers access to thousands of movies, television shows, music and audiobooks, all available for mobile and online streaming.
